

2017 CALGARY STAMPEDE PHOTO COMPETITION - RULES & REGULATIONS

The Calgary Stampede Photo Committee; (hereinafter called the Committee) showcases Western heritage through art photography. As a part of the Committee, we are presenting the Calgary Stampede Photo Competition (hereinafter called the Competition) for 2017. The Committee will select winning photographs through an independent judging process, and invites photographers to submit images for this competition.

Additional information about the Calgary Stampede Photo Competition may be obtained by contacting westernphoto@westernshowcase.com

Eligibility

The Competition is open to professional and amateur photographers from around the world. By submitting an entry, each contestant agrees to the rules and regulations of the Competition and states that they are 18 years old or older.

Volunteers of the Committee, of the Calgary Stampede and their immediate families are not eligible to submit an entry or entries to the Competition.

General

The Committee and the Calgary Stampede reserve the right to reject any entry or image that does not conform to these rules and regulations or, in the opinion and at the discretion of the Committee and the Calgary Stampede, are not deemed to be appropriate for the intended viewing audience. The decision of the Committee and the Calgary Stampede is final.

By submitting, the entrant accepts all the conditions, rules and regulations of the Competition and the Calgary Stampede.

Themes

The Committee and the Calgary Stampede are proud to promote and showcase Western heritage in keeping with the rich history of the West and the Calgary Stampede.

The four (4) Themes of the Competition reflect this heritage. They are Western Landscape & Wildlife, Western Lifestyle & Architecture, Rodeo and First Nations. For 2017 a special Theme has been added to celebrate Canada's 150th anniversary

Western Landscape and Wildlife: Any image that celebrates the vast prairies, majestic mountains or all that lives in these areas. Examples include natural landscapes, wildlife, and flowers. Images can be taken anywhere in the world but must have a Western feel.

Western Lifestyle and Architecture: Any image that depicts a Western way of life EXCEPT rodeo images. People, urban and rural structures, equipment or tools should figure prominently in the image. Examples include: western urban imagery; people doing farm or ranch work; structures, tools and equipment on a farm or ranch such as buildings, fences, rustic door hinges, windows and wagon wheels; interaction between people, structures and animals that would normally be found on a farm, ranch or western urban setting. Images that celebrate the unique life and architecture found in the West.

Rodeo: Any image that promotes people and livestock who attend or participate in a rodeo. Examples include: action shots during rodeos events, participants or stock that are waiting to compete and images that capture the excitement and energy of a rodeo.

First Nations: Any image that promotes and celebrates North American indigenous lifestyle. First Nations people, habitat, heritage and culture should figure prominently in the image. Examples include: people, housing and dancing that capture the First Nation heritage and culture.

Photo Competition Honours Canada's 150th Anniversary: What does Canada mean to you? This is a special one-time category and will be recognized separately. Not eligible for overall prize.

SUBMISSION OF ENTRIES TO THE COMPETITION

Submission of Photographs

An entry fee of $30.00 (Canadian Dollars) must accompany registration. Each entrant may submit up to a maximum of five (5) images and submit only one entry. Winning images from previous years are not eligible for resubmission.

Entries must be received by noon Mountain Standard Time on Thursday, January 5, 2017 to be eligible for the 2017 Competition. No entries will be accepted after that time.

All entries must be submitted in a digital format as outlined below:

Images must be submitted in a JPEG (JPG) format only. Images should be submitted in the best resolution possible, each image file no greater than 2MB in size and each image to be at least 1600 pixels wide (if horizontal) or 1600 pixels tall (if vertical). Images that require special equipment for viewing (for example 3D images) will not be accepted.

2017 CALGARY STAMPEDE PHOTO COMPETITION - RULES & REGULATIONS

The photographer's signature or any identifying marks must not be visible on the digital images submitted for judging.

Digitally enhanced or modified images may be submitted to the Competition. Images or any part of the final image may be created and/or modified digitally and any part of the final image may be originally in a traditional film or slide format and then scanned into a digital format.

Ensure that you submit your entry in the most appropriate Theme; it will not be transferred to a Theme that is, in the opinion of the judges, more appropriate.

Neither the Committee nor the Calgary Stampede is responsible for lost entries, misdirected entries, unreadable entries or entries that have digital artifacts or defects.

Images not adhering to the submission guidelines will not be accepted.

Judging

Entries will be judged on image quality, technical ability, composition and adherence to the Theme in which the entry has been submitted. Entries will be displayed and judged in the condition they are submitted. The independent judging panel will not be made aware of the identity of the artist as part of the judging process.

By entering the Competition, the entrant agrees and understands that photography is subjective. Due to that subjectivity, winning entries will be determined by the judges and all decisions pertaining to the winning entries are final.

Prizes will be awarded to the first and second place winner in each Theme and one prize for the Best of Competition winner. Please note for 2017, special prize recognition will be awarded for the theme, Photo Competition Honours Canada's 150th Anniversary. This category is not eligible for the overall winning prize.

Only one prize per entrant will be awarded per Theme. There will be honorable mentions selected for a digital showing.

Notification of Winners

Winners, runners up, and honorable mentions will be notified after March 3, 2017 via email. Winners and runners-up will be required to submit a larger J/PEG image file size for the Photo Gallery Competition display. Details will be forwarded directly to winners and runners-up.

Winners' and runners up's images will be posted on the website (www.westernshowcase.com)
